Macbeth Comic

Act 1 Scene 5

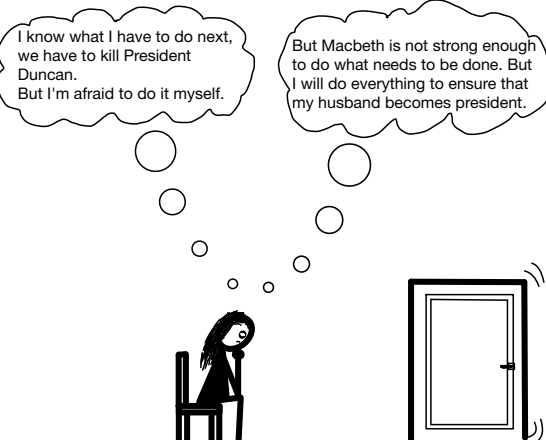

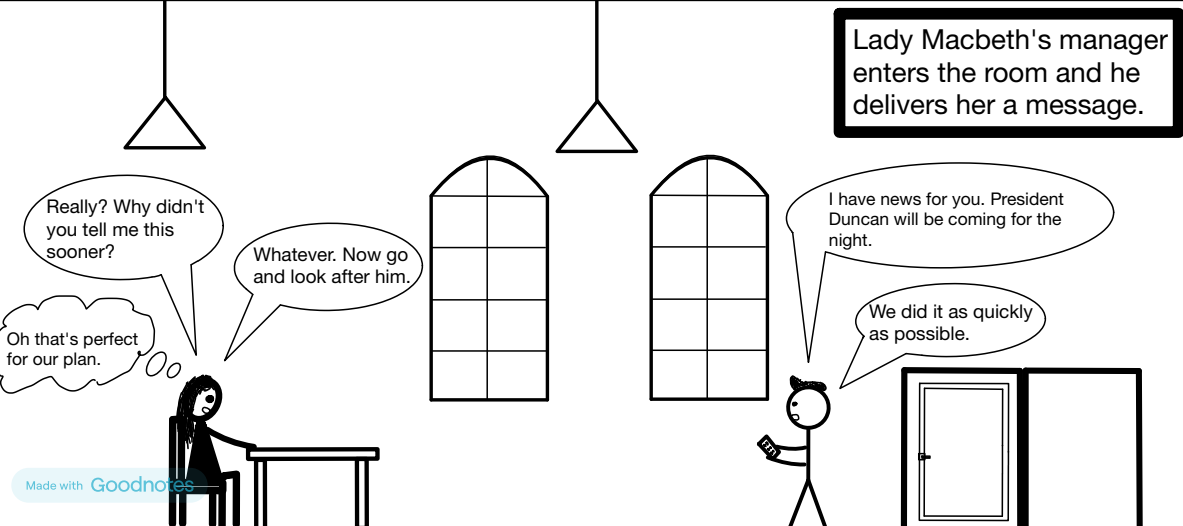

Lady Macbeth receives a message from her husband Macbeth.

Lady Macbeth thinks about this situation.

Lady Macbeth's manager enters the room and he delivers her a message.

The manager leaves, and Lady Macbeth sinks into her thoughts again.

Then my husband can finally fulfill his destiny of becoming president.

But when the moment has come, I can't back down.

There can be no witnesses in our plan.

If I had a male nature, I could perform the deed better, to kill President Duncan.

In the middle of her thoughts, her husband Macbeth comes home.

We have to act innocent, but beneath the facade, we have a clear plan.

So act normal and nothing will stand in the way of our plan.

Oh, he won't even live to see the next day.

Okay, don't worry, I'll take care of the further planning.

Okay, we'll talk about everything else at another time.

Hey sweetheart. I can confirm that President Duncan is staying here overnight. But he's leaving tomorrow.

Then Lady Macbeth and her husband Macbeth leave together after the conversation.
